

Mike Clemens graduated from Millersville University of Pennsylvania. He believes he was born to be a history teacher. One of his earliest memories is of his father lifting him to touch the Liberty Bell, which at the time was located outside and covered by a shed type roof. He chairs the social studies department at his high school and has worked for the Florida Humanities Council as a master teacher and as a Lead Teacher on two Teaching American History grant programs.